Dear Miss Hall Just to let you know we are getting along alright I do feeling better this morning. Cliff my friend was bad last night and I had a bad night. How are you and all your aches and pains today. We had a grand time last night and looking forward to another tonight. you will Guess what time we arrived home by the dole PL when we got home what a performance we did have. Liddles had got lights in the paper was all down lights left I took Daisy down to the bathet down with the and there wasn't much like ale got in ale packed her off straight on the table and looked through the window Yesterday afternoon and I've been out this morning to get some more lights and also Boxes for Daisy (our Aunt) I am now waiting for Bogy to come tomorrow. I think that's all now. With fondest love from
